

P&D Staff Training: Post-Construction Runoff and the NPDES Municipal Permit Pop Quiz & Survey Results

Quiz Results

Question	Correct Answer	No. Incorrect Answers
Project Clean Water staff will review all projects for water quality impacts	False	0
An excessive expense to the implementation of any single BMP is enough justification for not using it.	True	12
Parking lots are known to contribute heavy metals.	True	0
All Attachment 4(B) category projects must label storm drain inlets with prohibitive language (such as “No Dumping – drains to creek”)	True	0
All trash container areas must have a roof.	False	0
The Flood Control Standard Conditions address impacts from increased runoff rates	True	0
Dedicating open space areas is an acceptable Attachment 4(B) design standard	True	1
All Attachment 4(B) category projects will need to address Post-Construction Runoff Controls in their project plans and reports	True	0
The majority of pollutants found in storm water runoff occur in low to mid-sized storm events	True	3
All Attachment 4(B) category projects must be designed to minimize the introduction of pollutants of concern to the Maximum Extent Practicable	True	0
It is better to use a combination of smaller storm water treatment measures placed in series than to use a single measure at the project’s discharge point	True	0
The County’s post-construction storm water program only applies to the NPDES permit area	False	1
A Storm Water Quality Management Plan should be conditioned on any project having	True	0

Question	Correct Answer	No. Incorrect Answers
a significant water quality impact
Roof-top drains should drain directly to a paved gutter or piped conduit	False	1
Attachment 4(B) category projects must identify their proposed treatment measures before the application is COMPLETE.	True	5
The CASQA Handbook for New Development and Redevelopment includes Site Design and Source Control BMPs, as well as treatment control BMPs.	True	0
Public Works staff review/approve Storm Water Pollution Prevention Plans, or Erosion & Sediment Control Plans, for construction BMPs.	False	2
Large landscaping projects planned during the rainy season should be conditioned with BMPs to prevent erosion and control sediment.	True	0
According to the Grading Ordinance, construction BMPs do not need to be in place during the non-rainy or dry season (Apr 15 through Nov 1).	False	1
Only projects located in areas of “blue-line” creeks must employ measures to protect drainage swales or channels.	False	0
If a project disturbs more than 1.0 acre, applicants must provide a copy of their NOI and SWPPP (prepared under state requirements of the NPDES Construction General Permit	True	2
Plans must show designated areas for concrete, paint, plaster, etc wash areas if these type of activities will occur.	True	0
	Average:	2.25

Course Evaluation Results

Question	No. Responses
This training was Appropriate and Effective	10
This training was Somewhat appropriate / effective	2
This training was Not very appropriate or effective	0
I learned a lot	8
I learned Not so much, because I already knew it	4
I learned Not so much, because it was not very appropriate or effective	0
Total:	12