

Do Your Part...

Many people think that polluted water flowing into a storm drain gets treated, just like wastewater in a sewer system. IT DOESN'T.

URBAN RUNOFF FLOWS STRAIGHT TO OUR CREEKS AND OCEAN.

Prevent pollutants such as oil, soap, and pesticides, from flowing off your yard or driveway and keep trash away from storm drains.

For Clean Creeks and Healthy Beaches

PROJECT
CLEAN WATER
County of Santa Barbara

Learn more at sbcreeks.com or sbprojectcleanwater.org

Visit our booths at Earth Day on April 19!